

United States Postal Service
Office of Inspector General
Research and Insights Solutions Center

Statement of Work
Communications Specialist Support

1. Introduction

The United States Postal Service (USPS) Office of Inspector General (OIG) is awarding a contract to a Supplier who will provide subject matter expertise and communications support.

The contract type is Labor Hour (LH).

Contract Performance will be conducted in Arlington(Rosslyn, VA) on a hybrid status.

2. Background

The USPS OIG is an independent federal law enforcement agency providing oversight to the U.S. Postal Service (USPS) and the Postal Regulatory Commission (PRC). Its mission is to:

- conduct and supervise objective and independent audits, reviews, and investigations relating to Postal Service and PRC programs and operations,
- promote economy, efficiency, and effectiveness within the Postal Service and PRC, and
- inform the Postal Service Governors, Postal Service management, PRC Commissioners and Congress of problems, deficiencies, and corresponding corrective actions.

The Research directorate within the USPS OIG conducts research on issues of strategic importance to the U.S. Postal Service. Research findings are published in public-facing white papers and other formats, such as digital stories and podcasts. The audience for white papers includes the Postal Service, Congress, postal stakeholders, and the general public.

3. Scope of Work

The Supplier shall provide communications support that strengthens the unit's research and outreach by translating complex research into clear, compelling, and accessible products for both internal and external audiences. This role blends editorial excellence, multimedia content production, and strategic communication support to elevate the visibility and impact of the unit's work.

In order to accomplish the above scope, the Supplier may be required to perform the following tasks, but is not limited to:

- a) Edit white papers for clarity, flow, tone, potential bias, and narrative impact, ensuring each product tells a coherent and engaging story.
- b) Produce dynamic content based on research, including Shorthand narratives, interactive web features, presentations, podcasts, and infographics.
- c) Develop executive summaries, talking points, and PowerPoint decks for leadership briefings and website publication.
- d) Curate and manage the Research section of the unit's newsletter, highlighting key findings and updates.
- e) Assist in planning and executing online and in-person events to promote research and engage stakeholders.
- f) Support and refine communication workflows, templates, and standards in partnership with the team.
- g) Manage job-posting language and coordinate communications with candidates, new hires, and support onboarding messaging.
- h) Provide individualized coaching and training to analysts to strengthen their writing, storytelling, and communication skills.

i. Base Period

- i. Kick-off meeting (Due within one week after contract award (ACA))

The Supplier shall schedule and coordinate a Project Kick-Off Meeting at the location approved by the USPS OIG. The meeting will provide an introduction between the contractor personnel and OIG personnel who will be involved with the contract. The meeting will provide the opportunity to discuss technical, management, and security issues, and travel authorization and reporting procedures. At a minimum, the attendees shall include Key Supplier Personnel, representatives from the directorates, other relevant OIG personnel, and the OIG COR.
